

This would prove to be our last year leading the holiday programs, and we went out with a bang! Challenging our youth with casualty evacuation, carrying a poor helpless patient through all parts of the town!